

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT: TRAINING OFFICER

Royal Slope Fire Rescue & EMS is seeking a Training Officer

Our fire district is located in Central WA and provides Fire and EMS response to over 400 square miles of rich farmland, orchards and recreational areas. Our current training officer has accepted a promotion to fire chief of a neighboring fire district. The goal of our fire commissioners and chief will be to find a progressive training officer to work closely with our 40+ volunteers in maintaining their level of Fire and EMS Training. This position is also an operational position that has duties that include response and identified duty shifts. Residing within the fire district within 6 months from date of hire is a requirement of the job (complete description of duties is available with the application packet) We will be evaluating the first 15 completed packets returned before the deadline.

To apply for this Training Officer position, please request an application packet either in person during normal business hours at our headquarters station or by sending an email to office@grantfire10.com
